Pupil Journal

My name is Samuel Melese and I was elected for the Yellow House Captain. To be a House Captain I had to say a speech about why I would be a good captain. After I was elected house captain, it was a proud moment, I was very proud of myself. by Samuel (6G)

Words of Wisdom by Damien (6I)

"Cats in mittens catch no mice"

This means you should take off your mittens before you work.

A joke by Kamile (6G)

Q: "What keeps an eye on you during Christmas?"

SLT News

We had another busy week at school. Thank you to our Reception parents who dropped into classes for the welcome meetings. It was lovely to see all the Reception children in all our weekly assemblies for the first time. They are becoming familiar with school routines and we had our first Reception Stars of the Week today.

Our Year 3 classes got to watch a Ballet demonstration by the Royal Ballet School at Dagenham Park this afternoon. Read next week newsletter to find out about it. Children and staff were dressed in Jeans for our Jeans for Genes fundraiser today. We will tell you how much money we raised in the next newsletter. See our website for all the photos.

Please make that you drop off your child with their teacher or LSA in the morning before school, especially if your child is in KS1. Also make sure that you collect your child on time after school or after an after school club.
