Pupil Journal

In John Perry, all classes have been learning new topics. We are all settling in after our lovely half term! Our topics have changed in English, Science, Humanities and more.

John Perry Choir went and performed at the Royal Albert Hall! We participated in the Barnardo's charity event. Loads of different schools also took part in singing multiple songs. It was a great evening and we all enjoyed it.

SLT News

It's the first week back after the half term holiday and what an exciting week it's been. We had our Year 3s showing off their ballet demonstration to parents. On Wednesday, Miss Stratton and Mrs Chapman, took the choir to perform at the Royal Albert Hall. It was a very long day; the children arrived back at school at 22:40 in the evening! There were some very sleepy, but happy faces getting off the coach. Thank you to all the parents who helped on the trip and those who came to watch the performance. I am extremely proud of the way our children conducted themselves – their behaviour was exemplary. Staff at the Royal Albert Hall were very complimentary. A lady said that she had never seen such well-behaved and well-mannered children in all of her 23 years working there. That is something to be proud of! We will post photographs of the performance on the website – please have a look.

Unfortunately, our anti-bullying production, 'Just Joshing', had to be postponed because one of the performers became ill on the way to school. However, all John Perry children know the type of behaviour that is expected of them and we all work hard to make sure that any incidents of bullying, unkind or unacceptable behaviour is dealt with immediately. The children know that they can talk to any adult in the school if they see such behaviour or experience it themselves.
