Pupil Journal

This week was Autism Awareness week. Autism Awareness week is when John Perry Primary school children dress up on the 28th of March. We come to school in our pj's or onesies. We give our teachers 50p and the money goes to the National Autism Society. People with Autism aren't any different, they just think different and our wired up differently. Here is a poem we made:

- A- always
- U – unique
- T – totally
- I – intelligent
- S – sometimes
- M – mysterious.

Thank you for reading
