Mission Statement

At John Perry Primary School we are proud to provide a safe, stimulating and inclusive learning environment where every member of our community is valued and respected.

We listen to each other and every voice is heard.

Our broad, balanced, creative curriculum and enrichment activities provide opportunities for all to achieve and succeed.

We celebrate our achievements, differences and cultural diversity. Together we take pride in making a positive contribution to our school and the wider community.

Aims

We aim to ensure that all children are given the opportunity to attain their full potential.

This can only be achieved by high expectations of good attendance and punctuality.

Statistics show a direct link between underachievement and poor attendance. Regular attenders make better progress, both socially and academically. Regular attenders find school routines, school work and friendships easier to cope with.

In order to be successful every pupil, parent and member of staff need to work together.

We would like to promote a positive and welcoming atmosphere in which pupils, parents and staff feel safe, secure and valued.

We expect parents to be aware of the importance of good attendance and punctuality by effective monitoring.

We aim for a minimum of 96% attendance and offer support, advice and guidance to parents and pupils in order to achieve this.

Facts:

- Minimum attendance of 96% (10 days absence per year) means that during primary years the child will miss more than a term of education.
- If attendance is between 90-96% (10-20 days absence per year) it means that during primary years the child will miss 2 or more terms of education.
- If attendance is between 85-90% (20-30 days absence per year) it means that during primary years the child will miss over a year of education.
- Pupils who miss more than 50% of school, only 3% manage to achieve five A* to C GCSE grades including English and Maths.
- Pupils who miss between 10% and 20% of school only 35% manage to achieve five A* to C GCSE grades including English and Maths.
- Pupils who miss less than 5% of school 73% manage to achieve five A* to C GCSE grades including English and Maths.

School Attendance and the Law

Under the 1996 Education Act, parents and carers are responsible for ensuring their children attend school regularly and punctually. Failure to do so could result in legal action being taken against them by the Local Authority.

To begin to develop the habit of regular attendance from the time children arrive in nursery

Parents

To ensure that their children arrive in school well prepared for the school day

Staff

To ensure regular, efficient and accurate recording of attendance

To make early contact with parents when a pupil fails to attend school without providing good reason

To ensure immediate action on any problem notified to us

To keep records of persistent absences and to create an evidence trail recording dates, phone calls, letters, meetings, action taken and responses

To recognise and reward good attendance

ENCOURAGING ATTENDANCE THROUGH GOOD PRACTICE AND REWARDS

The efficient use of computerised registration systems can provide valuable, year group, class and pupil level attendance data which enables speedy analysis and timely responses by the school.

RESPONDING TO NON-ATTENDANCE:

When a pupil does not attend, the school will respond effectively

By contacting the parent/carer on the first day of absence if no reason has been received

By contacting the parent/carer every day during the period of absence for an update

By following up with a letter if necessary

By monitoring closely any areas of concern with non-attendance

Where non-attendance or persistent lateness continues the concern will be discussed with the school Parent Support Advisor where appropriate action will be taken

If poor absenteeism or punctuality is unresolved then a meeting of the School

Attendance Panel will be arranged. The panel may be made up of the Head teacher,

Chair of Governors, School Attendance Officer and the external Attendance Adviser. If no improvement is made then the external Attendance Adviser will review and plan further action. This could include fixed penalty fines and court appearances

Periods of absence during term time will not be authorised by the Head Teacher. In exceptional circumstances the request may be considered.

Exceptional circumstances refer to:

- Bereavement
- Participation in national sporting or cultural events
- Medical appointments
- Visits to Secondary Schools (Year 6 only)

All requests will need to be supported by the appropriate evidence.

With the support of the Governing Board, from October 2018 John Perry Primary school began issuing Penalty Charge Notices (fines) for unauthorised holidays during term time.

What happens if your child does not attend school regularly (and their absence is not authorised?) It is a criminal offence for a child not to attend school regularly and, as the parent, this is your responsibility. A Penalty Notice may therefore be issued, requiring you to pay a fine of up to £60 per parent/carer, per child if their attendance is below an acceptable level. In certain circumstances you may be prosecuted and be required to attend the Magistrates Court where you could face up to 3 months imprisonment and/or a fine of up to £2,500. You will be given every opportunity to improve your child's attendance and you will receive a written warning before any legal action is taken.

Where necessary to instigate legal proceedings on behalf of the LEA including parental prosecutions in the Magistrates' Court and applying for Education Supervision Orders through the Family Court.

John Perry Primary School understands that within families there can be unforeseen circumstances. In times of emergency or upheaval, it is sometimes better to keep a child in school where a safe and familiar routine can be provided while the family attends to issues. Friendships in school can provide support and stability during difficult times.

Support we can offer:

Opportunities to meet with the class teacher/parent support teacher/members of SLT/school attendance lead

Advice regarding housing

Links with the school nurse for health concerns

Parenting programmes

Advice regarding sleep disorders

Home visits

Support from the external attendance adviser
